

“We turn boys into men, and men into legends”

Dear Incoming Student,

Congratulations on your acceptance to the University of California, Irvine. The gentlemen of the Sigma Pi Fraternity at the University of California, Irvine would like to inform you of the availability of three scholarships for all incoming male students. These scholarships are available to incoming male students of all majors. There will be three, $300 scholarships awarded based on the individuals quality of Academic Achievement, Leadership Potential, Athletic Involvement and Career Motivation.

The Deadline for all Scholarships is October 30, 2008. The second step in the application process is to participate in a personal interview with the Scholarship Committee of Sigma Pi Fraternity. The scholarships will be awarded during the Winter Quarter. We also will be hosting the Sigma Pi Alumni Career Night the second week of the Fall Quarter which will provide the unique opportunity to meet and network with numerous established alumni from all vocations.
